Making it Real

• Goals:
  • Learn about MSU’s impact on the world through a variety of projects
  • Gain perspective on how we can help
• Katie Winkler volunteered to work with team to interview seven faculty:
  • What is the focus?
  • What are the impacts?
  • What are the challenges?
  • Why is project/administrative support important?
• Insightful responses; consolidated in two parts
• Making it Real, Part I

  • Dr. Eric Crawford; Professor and Co-Director of Food Security Group, Department of Agricultural, Food, and Resource Economics, CANR

  • Anne Schneller; Co-Director, BHEARD and GRAIN Afghanistan Projects, Department of Agricultural, Food, and Resource Economics, CANR

  • Dr. Terrie Taylor; University Distinguished Professor, Tropical Medicine, Department of Osteopathic Medical Specialties, COM
• Making it Real, Part I

  • Heard related to leveraging faculty efforts:
    • Challenges are significant and impact timelines
    • The support we provide at MSU from departments, colleges, and central administration makes a difference
    • Collaborating with MSU units and partnering with subawardees makes a positive impact

  • Thanks to the faculty that shared their responses and the Sponsored Programs Administration staff that filmed, edited and produced the video.
